HOAGLAND'S
NEW PATENT SHAFT COUPLING!
W. E. COOPER

HAS PURCHASED THE RIGHT FOR THIS County of the above Patent and will hereafter use it in the construction of all the Vehicles manufactured at his extensive

Carriage Factory,
Corner of Second and Morrison Streets
He respectfully refers to the following
CARD.

Having examined the New Patent Shaft Coupling invented by H. R. Hoagland we feel pleasure in informing the public that in our opinion it is the safest and best method of connecting shafts or tongue to all vehicles that has ever been used

It fastens without bolt or screw and is therefore easily and speedily separated. It sets on Gutta Percha so as to be entirely free from the rattling sound which so often disturbs restless horses. It is easily changed so that the shafts or tongue may be detached in an instant and is convenient safe and secure.

It is easy to change to this style of coupling any buggy or other vehicle now in use and with small expense. We have come to the conclusion to use this new invention ourselves and recommend its use in all cases. We consider it far superior to the Brewster Patent heretofore considered the best in use.

FRANCE DECLARES WAR AGAINST PRUSSIA!

PRESIDENT GRANT CALLS AN EXTRA SESSION OF CONGRESS

NEW YORK July 14—Special cable dispatches from Europe report that the intervention of the Great Powers has proved ineffectual for the preservation of peace. Napoleon will to-day declare war against Prussia. President Grant will call an extra session of Congress in consequence.

LATER. PARIS July 15 3 P M. The Corps Legislatif declared war against Prussia at ten minutes before two. Holland will remain neutral. The belligerents have engaged to respect the neutrality of Belgium yet troops are rapidly concentrating at Antwerp and other strategic points. The specie and bullion in the national bank of Antwerp have been removed to the citadel and the issue of paper money is announced.

WASHINGTON July 15—The President has called an extra session of Congress to provide means for increasing our commercial marine and to provide ... carrying ... mails to Europe.

Congressional—Washington News

WASHINGTON July 14—In the House Johnson from the Committee on Public Lands reported a bill creating a land district in California to be called Shasta district. The bill passed.

Senator Norton of Minnesota died this morning of consumption.

The President to-day sent to the Senate a correspondence relative to the question pending with Great Britain.

The President has nominated Hon Theodore Frelinghuysen Minister to England vice Motley recalled.

The Senate has confirmed Chas F That... of Alabama Consul to Rio Janeiro and Chas E DeLong Envoy Extraordinary to Japan.

In the Senate the bill to continue the actual allowing drawbacks on cotton goods exported prior to May 1st 1872 when the internal tax was paid on raw cotton passed.

The Conference Committee reported on the Army bill that the pay of Generals be fixed at $17 000 and Lieutenant Generals $11 000. Officers in active service are not allowed to hold civil office. Retired officers may do so.

Mr Howard made a Conference report on the Georgia bill in favor of the House bill with an amendment declaring that nothing in that or any other act of Congress shall be construed to affect the term for which any officer has been appointed or any member of the general assembly elected as prescribed by the State Constitution adopted.

The House Committee on Appropriations reported an entirely new bill appropriating $5 000 000 to enable the President to maintain peace among the Indians by payment of annuities. The House adhered to its position on the original bill virtually called it a raw bill and then passed it 12 to 66. The report of the Conference Committee on the Georgia bill was adopted.

The President has signed the Tax and Funding bill Mrs Lincoln's pension bill and many others of no general interest.

Business in New York

NEW YORK July 14—Flour and Wheat is a shade firmer but no higher. Corn ... better. Provisions dull.

Specie shipments to Europe to-day were $... 000. Excitement in the gold room was renewed to-day on private reports of the warlike aspect of affairs in Europe.

Storm in Canada.

MONTREAL July 14—A great storm last night destroyed a large number of buildings and damaged one hundred others. Loss of property enormous. No loss of life ascertained. Other places are believed to have suffered equally or worse. It is reported that two large freight sheds of the Grand Trunk Railroad are prostrated. Loss to them alone is immense. All telegraph lines down. Much greater damage done at other points than reported.

New York News

CANANDAIGUA N Y July 14—Judge W... to-day sentenced the Reuben prisoners Starr ... and Thompson to two years imprisonment ... Auburn jail. Capt Marnon who pleaded guilty was sentenced to one year's imprisonment.

The Government organs approve it and the Imperial journals call it a violation of the Mexican treaty. There are rumors of an invasion of the Rio Grande States by Americans. It is reported that a secret treaty exists between Juarez and Grant the latter guaranteeing the Presidency to Juarez in consideration of a cession of Mexican territory.

BY THE CABLES

LONDON July 14—The feeling throughout Europe is still one of general uneasiness. The tone of the official papers of France is eminently pacific but other journals persist in being warlike. The want of confidence at the Exchanges of the various European capitals is a fair reflection of the public sentiment. The North German Parliament has been convoked. The meeting will be early next week.

The Daily Oregonian

SATURDAY MORNING JULY 16 1870

The Changes of a Century

The student of politics who restricts his investigations to our times and regards only the existing condition of affairs in the different States of the old world will find much more to deplore than to admire. But if such is the consequence of contemporary investigation, sensible relief may be gained by a survey of the past. A comparison of the present century with the last—or one further back—will show a great advance in the march of humanity.

In 1760, when George III ascended the British throne, England was almost destitute of good roads. Ireland, Scotland and Wales being still worse off, and internal commerce was in its infancy. Lumbering and slow moving stage coaches, the carriages of the nobility, pack wagons and horseback traveling were the only means of locomotion which tourists of any grade could employ, and every thoroughfare was swarmed with highwaymen.

In France the Fifteenth Louis was alternating his horrible debaucheries with the fits of remorseful devotion which age and infirmity inspired. A corrupt and tyrannical priesthood ruled the consciences of the people, a profligate Court squandered the resources of the country, and the peasantry groaned under imposts and oppressions more intolerable than the burdens of a Southern slave.

In Spain the Inquisition still ruled. Though shorn of some of its terrors it was not until 1780 that the last victim of an auto da fe perished at the stake.

Germany was divided into almost numberless principalities each of which had its own code of laws, its ignorant peasantry and its swinish Elector, or Grand Duke, whose brutal orgies emulated the depravity while they lacked the refinement of the revels of Versailles. Austria was the dominant State, and her seven years war with her fierce and fast rising rival, Prussia, involved the smaller monarchies, devastated the land, and demoralized the people. Less than twenty years later the Elector of Hesse sold his subjects like cattle to fight for the British King against the American colonists. Germany if not a paradise now, is happy enough compared with her state in 1760.

In Russia the Czarina Elizabeth ruled over millions of semi-barbarians, and was pursuing the course of drunkenness which resulted in her death from delirium tremens in 1762.

Turkey was not then "sick," though exhibiting signs of decrepitude. Catharine, of Russia had not yet punished her and only seventy-two years before her soldiers had surrounded Vienna, and were driven away solely by the friends of John Sobieski, whose kindness was so ungratefully repaid by Austria's share in the partition of Poland in 1774.

Such was the political condition of Europe one hundred and ten years ago. Morally the picture was not less somber. Fielding's Squire Western, the amiable individual who cursed his family, hunted every day and got drunk every night, was a fair specimen of the country gentleman of the day. The Lovelace, whom Richardson made to ruin the matchless Clarissa, found his prototype in the fops and wits who haunted the towns and theaters of the metropolis, and were the pets of the Court circles. A Chesterfield could give his son advice as to the best mode of prosecuting his amours, in that exciting special scandal, and the conversation of persons claiming to be modest and well disposed would shock the most fastidious critic of the nineteenth century. The fierce opposition to Methodism, by mobs and other outbreaks, shows that the general depravity had reached the church, while the slow progress of humanity is indicated in the fact that almost every crime was punished by death, and a woman was even burned at the stake for coining as late as 1764.

But even while the state of society was so low, agencies were at work to purify it. Not only were severe moralists employed in inculcating good lessons, but satirists were also contributing powerfully to the cause of social and political regeneration. Good seed sown then still continues to bear fruit. There were Addison and others to give a charm to literature and a better tone to morals by the purity of their writings, and there also was Swift to paint the follies or vices of men in such colors as to cause them to turn away from the picture with abhorrence and disgust.

A century ago, or even less, the miasm of despotism, stupid, drivelling king-worship pervaded Continental Europe. The servility of the Persian Court was not more excessive than that which ruled at Versailles, Vienna and Madrid. A terrible storm was needed to purify the atmosphere. That storm came in the French Revolution of 1789. The crimes of centuries were avenged by the frantic mobs of Paris. The demon of absolutism was assailed by the demon of anarchy. One fearful instrumentality opposed another no less frightful. The social fabric was shaken to its foundation. It seemed for a while as if all that was venerable, time-honored and stable was to be destroyed forever. The first fury of the tempest passed away. It demolished much but it saved more. Though many a product of statecraft and human veneration perished, and some truly noble structures shared the common ruin, the atmosphere was purified, men breathed freer, the sun of liberty was seen to shine at last. Its rays have never since been wholly obscured, though often temporarily dimmed. With the Revolution the divine right of kings became an exploded dogma, except in the very presence chambers of monarchs. They henceforth ruled by their own right, if at all. No superstitious reverence longer clung to their garments.

The change for the better has not been completed; it is but just fairly begun. Europe seems to be again standing on the perilous edge of wars and revolutions. Out of them changes must come which will certainly benefit the world ere they run their course. In our own country a century has wrought changes even more astonishing, perhaps, than elsewhere in the world. The people have spread over the continent, a great nation has grown up, and the events of the last ten years have vindicated the principle of government by the people, and cast out of our social political structure the elements of discord and disintegration.

The appointment of ex-Senator Frelinghuysen, of New Jersey, to be Minister to England is a most fit and excellent one. Mr Frelinghuysen possesses culture and experience in public affairs, and will be a worthy successor to the Minister who has been recalled.

The income tax is now in such a shape as to occasion little inconvenience or remonstrance on the part of the people. A tax of two and a half per cent, with an exemption of two thousand dollars, will not be seriously objected to.

Tendency to Annexation

The people of the British Provinces would seem to have not fully made up their minds that consolidation under the Dominion of Canada is the best thing they can do. Hence a movement looking to independence with an ultimate design of a union with the United States is rapidly spreading. It is plainly evident that the tendency is toward annexation. Says the Chicago [illegible]: "The Dominion can never be held together as a [illegible]. It has no elements of cohesion among its people, or geographical [illegible] interest. As a part of the great Republic every Province would secure absolute independence as to its own affairs and in a few years be so tied to adjacent States by railways and telegraphs that old lines would be obliterated, and every interest merged in a great sentimental development." It is evident that the settlement and growth of all the interior portion of the Dominion will be best promoted by north and south connection with the States, and that an east and west Pacific road north of Lake Superior is impracticable. The natural outlet is toward the south for all classes of productions, and if a part of the Union, not many years would elapse before Hudson's Bay would be united by rail with the Gulf of Mexico and the great Lakes, and the Saskatchewan Valley be made tributary to St Paul and Chicago. Nature has sufficiently indicated the routes of trade for the intercolonial country, and in the end they must be followed. But it is scarcely worth our while to hasten events by any other than [illegible] action. The Canadians seem to have some faith in a confederation, and a few years time will be necessary to show them its weakness and impracticability. If they desire to make the experiment, they should be let alone, until the trial is fairly made. If it fails, as every one of our people believe it will, the final union will come naturally and peacefully.

War in Europe

The dispatches this morning contain startling intelligence. France has declared war against Prussia, and the probability is that all Europe will be involved in the struggle. Austria, no doubt will seize the opportunity to try to avenge Sadowa, and Italy will probably be forced in self-defense to take the side of her former ally, Prussia. A few days ago it seemed as if the complications that had arisen in regard to the disposal of the Spanish crown would be settled without war, but France is jealous of the rising influence of Prussia in European politics, and thinks it necessary for her own safety to give that influence a check. But Prussia is now a first-class power, full of vigor and resources, and as there is no calculating the chances of war she may in this struggle find her opportunity to avenge Jena and Auerstadt. The war is certain to be a bloody and costly one. Of course our securities in Europe will be injuriously affected. But there will be compensations for this, and the misfortunes of European nations will be our material profit. There will be an increased demand for American breadstuffs and advancing prices, and an opportunity will be afforded to revive our commerce and secure for our country a largely increased share of the carrying trade of the world. President Grant has called a special session of Congress to take such action as may be necessary to preserve our rights and advance our maritime interests. There are likely to be stirring times for the remainder of the year.

The Herald is wonderfully anxious to have us correct an error in the election returns which seems to have been made in the Secretary's office, whereby Mr. Patterson's majority is put at 401, instead of 501, which last number is the true one. That paper asks "Is the OREGONIAN actuated by a petty malicious desire to have it appear that the publisher of the Herald ran far behind his ticket and that the paper is therefore an unpopular one? Deal fairly with Mr Patterson and the Herald, neighbor." The error is one we had no hand in making, and it is of little consequence any way, though we don't remember to have noticed any trifling matter about which more sensitiveness has been manifested than the Herald has exhibited in this case. Perhaps if it felt sure of its popularity it would not be so sensitive. It is well known that during the campaign the Albany Democrat was the leading paper of the party. It saw that the Herald was taking a silly course and one that would injure the party, so it ordered that paper to be silent and took the direction of the campaign upon itself. Mr Patterson therefore owes his election to the Democrat, for his connection with the Herald would certainly have defeated him had not the Democrat compelled that paper to cease its advocacy of repudiation. As it is he is behind a majority of his ticket. We have said these things because, as the Herald has reproached us for silence in the matter, it is fit that the whole truth should be told.

In making appropriations for surveys on the Pacific coast Congress has provided that the Commissioner of the General Land Office may authorize public lands in Oregon and California, which are "densely covered with forest or thick undergrowth, to be surveyed at augmented rates, not exceeding $18 per mile for standard parallels, $15 for townships and $12 for sections."

Senator Norton, of Minnesota, who died of consumption at Washington City on the 14th inst, had held a seat in the Senate for nearly six years. His term would have expired in March next. Mr Norton was elected as a Republican, but went off with the Johnson movement in 1866, and has since acted with the Democrats. His successor beyond question will be a Republican.

It is announced by the New York Herald that ex-President Johnson has abandoned the idea of a pilgrimage to the Holy Land this year and has settled himself down in East Tennessee to the task of "A Constitutional Vindication of My Policy." That's the very book we want Mr. Johnson [illegible], but don't make it too long—the shorter the better.

FINANCIAL AND INDUSTRIAL.

It is estimated that it costs 13 cents to produce a pound of cotton, against 16 cents just after the war. There is still a profit left of $31 50 per bale of 450 lbs, or $90,000,000 on a crop of 3,000,000 bales. This is exclusive of transportation to the seaboard and the charges of middle men.

Immigrants are said to be thronging into Texas in overwhelming numbers. Every steamboat up the Red River is literally crowded with them and a local paper says the number taking the overland route cannot be estimated. There is almost limitless room in that great State, and when filled with an industrious, enterprising people it will be an empire of itself.

The Menhaden fisheries of Long Island Sound employ 50 sloops, 100 sloop lighters, and many smaller boats, besides one or two steamers in the hight of the season, which require about 500 sailors. At least $50,000 capital is invested in this industry, and 500,000 gallons of oil produced annually. The manure alone pays the cost of catching the fish, of which about 10,000 tons annually are produced. A million of fish are occasionally caught in a single haul.

THE TERRITORIES

From the [illegible] returns of the late election in [illegible] it appears that Merritt received [illegible] votes [illegible] number cast [illegible] Mer[illegible] majority [illegible].

An Idaho City paper says: "Business is getting so low [illegible] money [illegible] scarce that we understand quite a number of saloons in this city [illegible] closing up. There are only about a dozen or so more than there ought to be in Idaho City."

H. Conrad, a German shoemaker living in [illegible], Montana Territory, was found dead in his shop July 7th, with a pistol by his side. He evidently committed suicide. No cause is assigned. The Coroner is investigating the matter.

Iron making is about to begin in Idaho. A recent letter says: "The indications are very favorable for iron being made. I saw a letter a few days ago from Dr Scheuner, a metallurgist now operating at Iron City, [illegible] who expresses strong convictions of turning out an abundance of pig iron at an early day. A company has been at work there for a year and a half getting out iron ore, gathering fuel that possesses sufficient carbon for smelting purposes, making preparations for the erection of furnaces, and from the most reliable information to be obtained their efforts are likely to be successful."

A messenger from the Loon creek mines informs an Idaho paper that the body of Aaron Smith, who was lost at the same time with Wentworth in the snow slide in January last, was found recently by Mr Matt Hone. Mr Hone has been engaged with Mr Tatro in searching for the bodies of these two unfortunate men for nearly two months past, and on last Sunday evening he discovered that of Smith at a point seven hundred yards down the canyon below where Wentworth's body was found. The express pack was found with him in good condition. Smith's neck was broken and also his thigh and arm. The body was in a good state of preservation, and when found was covered with only about a foot and a half of snow. Mr Hone was alone when he found the body, but shortly afterward some packers came up and assisted him to carry it to the place where Wentworth was buried, and Smith's body was then buried alongside of it.

OREGON

From the Statesman: Patrick Brown, the escaped convict, seems to have the heels of all pursuers and we may as well reconcile ourselves to the idea that he will not be captured.

From the Enterprise: The steamer Senator is taken off the route between here and Portland, and is beached at the lower end of town for repairs. We learn that she is to be thoroughly overhauled, repainted, and her power increased. When she makes her appearance again on the lines she will be better than ever.

The Yamhill Blade says: "The defeated Democratic candidates in this county gave notice to their successful competitors last week that they would contest for the offices. Mr. Thomas Jackson (dem.) who was beaten seven votes by Mr. M Redding (rep.) for County Judge, has withdrawn from the contest. Mr Smith (rep.), who was beaten by Mr Ramsey (dem.) two votes for County Judge, will almost certainly be found elected by the legal votes of the county. Now by a scalawags will be all thrown."

Commencement exercises at Willamette University occur on Thursday, the 21st inst. The exercises of the graduating class, twelve in number, will take place in the forenoon. In the afternoon, commencing at 2 o'clock, Rev Dr Lindsley, of Portland, will deliver an address before the University, to be followed by the Baccalaureate Address delivered by the President of the College, after which degrees will be conferred. The Alumni hold their reunion in the evening. On Wednesday evening, prize declamations in the College Chapel.

Letter from Judge Boise.

HE DEFINES HIS POSITION

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

In your paper of the 13th of July I have seen an article in which you complain that Polk county was lost to the Republican party because of want of tone and spirit in the party.

And you further say "some of the recognized leaders of the party there (in Polk) among whom we may name Judge Boise and Mr Sullivan, have not been willing to accept any prominent measure of the Republican party for the last five years. They protested against the reconstruction laws and thought them all wrong." I do not pretend to speak for Mr Sullivan; he can speak for himself, but so far as I am concerned your statement of my views and action is not true in any respect. On the contrary, I have uniformly "for the last five years," supported "all the reconstruction laws" of Congress, and defended them on all proper occasions.

As to the fifteenth amendment I have said that I did not consider it a tenet of the Republican party of this State, and that the party were not committed to it by any action of the Republican party of the nation. And I have justified Senator Corbett and Mr Mallory in voting against it as in so doing they represented the will of a majority of their constituents. The fifteenth amendment is now a part of the Federal Constitution and the rights conferred by it should be respected and protected in as good faith as any other rights guaranteed by any part of our fundamental law.

You refer to an article in the Republican, and say that it expresses my sentiments. To this I simply say that I in no wise dictated or advised the article referred to—that I am in no way connected with that paper or responsible for what it contains.

As I feel that I have been misrepresented I hope you will insert this letter in your paper, that I may be fairly understood by your readers.

Yours, truly,

R P BOISE

A Workman on the Chinese Question.

John Chinaman is the current topic of the newspaper world. The opinions are various and the information vast. There is much froth and fury, but also a fair average of good sense. There are hints at violence in a few quarters, but on the whole moderate counsels rule the discussion. The laboring men's party is not, however, as moderate as the striking shoemaker at North Adams, Mass who said to the correspondent of the Baltimore American:

"Well some want to see the Chinese banished, their immigration restricted. I don't because I think we can do better with them. I hope some day to be an employer myself and I think they would aid me. So with hundreds of other men here who do not mean to be hirelings all their lifetime. These Chinese are machines. We don't want to see our [illegible] machinery [illegible] employ [illegible] could not find work before. So with the Chinese [illegible] will render possible [illegible] [illegible] the Chinese are all well [illegible] the capitalists. The capitalist will grow richer and the workingman poorer and you can imagine whither that is the spirit of our institutions. I should like to [illegible] the coolie perfectly free as we are in the [illegible] of contract.

And then?

Well [illegible] Kearney and will soon [illegible] will [illegible] rights and demand [illegible] and [illegible] become [illegible] he will [illegible] fighting [illegible] like Sampson [illegible]."

The Income Tax

A correspondent of the New York Tribune takes the following view of the income tax:

Your correspondent, "Justice," claims that a majority of the voters in both the Democratic and Republican parties are opposed to the continuance of the income tax and attempts to substantiate his argument by asserting that the "tone of the press" of both parties indicates such opposition. I assert, without fear of successful contradiction, that a great majority of either party, if not in favor of its further continuance, are indifferent as to whether it is imposed or not. The number who will have to pay hereafter—provided the action of the House of Representatives [illegible] the Senate cannot be more than [illegible] and among those included in [illegible] alone will hardly be found [illegible] opposition to or dissatisfaction with the [illegible].

Moreover those who are in favor of this tax are the men who, regardless of their own [illegible] interests, rushed to the defence of our imperiled country and devoted the best years of their lives in maintaining her liberties, while the representatives of wealth, together [illegible] luxury [illegible] engaged in multiplying their dollars [illegible] from which they are now opposed [illegible].

Further [illegible] the papers of the country [illegible] a great degree [illegible] naturally condemn [illegible].

The Stages of the O. & C. S. Co. connect with the Cal & O. R. Road at Chico 230 miles North of San Francisco, also at the Junction with the Great Overland Railroad to New York.

Time through to San Francisco 5½ days
" New York 12 "

Passengers will be allowed to lay over along the route. Those who travel by this route avoid the dangers of the sea and that dreaded and terrible feeling of sea sickness. The wild picturesque scenery, beautiful valleys and [illegible] capped mountains, alone, doubly pay the tourist for a trip over this route.

The route passes through the principal agricultural districts of Oregon, the valleys of the Willamette, Umpqua and Rogue River. To those in quest of [illegible] or in search of a home, or to invest, this route is strongly recommended.

CITY.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY.—We mentioned yesterday morning the fact that Johnny Helton and one or two others had been waylaid and robbed on the White House road the night before. We now have further particulars. Mr Helton was accompanied by Messrs Cook and Flanders of Nolan's Hippodrome. They were stopped by three armed men some distance beyond the second toll gate, who demanded their money and valuables. When it came to giving up a valuable watch, Mr Helton demurred, whereupon one of the robbers fired at him with a revolver, inflicting a bad wound in the left shoulder. The party after being stripped of all their valuables were allowed to proceed. They went on to the White House, whence they immediately returned for medical aid. Mr Helton is at the International Hotel, attended by Drs Chapman and Wilson. The wound is a bad one though whether dangerous or not cannot yet be determined. The other gentlemen were unhurt. We hear of one or two other parties who were stopped on the road, one of whom (whose name we did not get) states that he recognized two of the robbers as recently escaped convicts from the penitentiary at Steilacoom, W T. The police were engaged all day yesterday in pursuit of the robbers. A young man named Hackney was arrested on suspicion of being connected with the affair and will have an examination before the Recorder this morning.

DALLES ITEMS.—From the Sentinel of this morning.

The Catholic Library and Christian Doctrine Society of this city is in a flourishing condition. According to the last quarterly exhibit, the number of books added during the quarter was 125, making a total number of volumes in the library of 1,485. Besides that the Society receives all the principal Catholic papers and periodicals published in the United States. The Society's finances are in a healthy condition which will enable it to add many more volumes of useful literature to its library.

Very Rev F X Wenroger D D S J will leave for Victoria, Vancouver's Island next week. Very Rev Father Brouillet V G has gone to Idaho and Montana. Rev P Mans President of Holy Angels' College Vancouver left for San Francisco on the last steamer. Rev Father Duffy is now stationed at Walla Walla where, as announced in another column, he takes charge of a graded school of boys about to be established there. We learn further that Rev Father Dielman, our zealous missionary in eastern Oregon, is on his way hither, from whence he will leave for San Francisco, California.

RELIGIOUS AND PERSONAL.—We take the subjoined items from the Advocate:

Rev J Turner gave us a call this week. His health is much improved by his sojourn in Klickitat valley.

Camp meeting at Ames Chapel campground nine miles west of Portland, commences Thursday, July 21st, at 7 o'clock P M.

Rev D Rutledge, agent of the Freedman's Aid Society, will preach on Sabbath (to-morrow) evening at the First Lutheran Church, corner of Fifth and Taylor streets.

Rev J B Dickerson and wife, formerly of Steilacoom W T, have been sojourning a few days in this city. Their house has ever been a welcome home for the servants of God, and their numerous friends are heartily glad to greet them. For the present they will reside at the Dalles.

Rev S H Vincent, Corresponding Secretary of the Sunday school Union, informs us by letter that in view of his engagement at the Evangelical Alliance, he must abandon his visit to the Pacific coast this summer, but hopes to come next spring. The great friend of Sunday schools will be heartily welcomed whenever he may come.

KNOCKED DOWN AND ROBBED.—Between twelve and one o'clock yesterday morning Mr Johnson, a tailor who works with Mr Roberts on Washington street, while passing along Third street between Alder and Washington, going to his lodgings, was suddenly set upon by two or three men who had been hid behind the trees standing there. He received a terrific blow on the head dealt with some heavy instrument which sent him far into the street and rendered him so near senseless that the only thing he was conscious of was that there were at least two men, and that they, after he was down, fumbled about his pockets and breast pockets. When he recovered so as to know what had happened, he found his face covered with blood from a wound on his head, and that his watch and chain and money were gone. The watch was a handsome one that he had bought only the day before. Of money he lost only about fifteen or sixteen dollars. There is no clue, so far as we can learn, to the thieves.

GRADUATING CLASS PORTLAND ACADEMY.—The graduating exercises at the Portland Academy took place yesterday afternoon. There were six in the Academic class and one young lady in the commercial course, Miss Mattie E Kelly. The Academic graduates were Charles A Backen, Thomas Connell, Wm H Dierdorff, Silas Kelly, Samuel Simon and Miss Louisa In[illegible]. These young people, in the examinations through which they passed and the essays delivered, exhibited not only more than the average talent, but careful application to their studies. Their performances were creditable both to them and their teachers. The exercises of the afternoon were only those of the graduating class, interspersed with some very excellent music and the presentation of diplomas. We understand that with yesterday's exercises Prof Hatch's connection with the Academy ceases, and that the next term will open under charge of Prof T E Rogers, lately from one of the Eastern States.

WANTED—LYNCH LAW.—In view of the frequency of crimes lately committed in this city, it is evident that the rogues are becoming very inconveniently numerous, and that some means of self protection must be resorted to. In the first place, a considerable increase of the police force is imperatively demanded, to which should be added, as occasion may require, a detective corps. If the City Council do not think so, there will soon be found a great many people who will think and talk (in a very serious view, too) about the moral effect of a few lamp post lynchings. Indeed we heard many good and solid [illegible] yesterday speak quite favorably of [illegible] some of our lamp posts for a few [illegible] with ropes and rogues as a means well [illegible] (and possibly necessary) to greatly [illegible] the emigration of foot pads, garroters, thieves and villains of various sorts, and thus [illegible] a reasonable degree of personal security for honest people.

CHINAMEN FOR THE RAILROAD.—About one hundred Chinamen were sent up yesterday to work on the Oregon and California railroad. This step has been rendered absolutely necessary if the work is to be carried on, as the working force have lately been seriously crippled by the "knocking off" of great numbers of white laborers, who have all the season been given the preference. Many of them quit work in consequence of the hot weather while others have quit because they could get temporarily greater wages at harvesting. There has been no reduction of wages on the road, and every white applicant for work has been employed, and yet the force has never been so large as wanted. It has become a matter of necessity to employ Chinamen or give up the idea of carrying on the work efficiently.

EDUCATIONAL.—The exercises of commencement week at the Wallamet University, Salem, will begin on Monday. The examinations of classes will continue till Wednesday noon. On Wednesday evening there will be prize declamations and orations by ten of the under graduates, five ladies and five gentlemen. The Commencement proper will be held on Thursday the 21st. The forenoon will be devoted to the productions of the graduating class numbering twelve persons. In the afternoon there will be the address by Rev Dr Lindsley, of Portland. The Baccalaureate Address by Dr N Rounds. Third degrees conferred. In the evening the Alumni of the college will hold their annual reunion. The annual meeting of the Trustees will take place on Tuesday evening the 19th instant.

NEW COMERS.—Mr St[illegible] of the firm of [illegible] & Upton will start up the valley this morning, taking with him a Mr Chalmers and son from Scotland and another gentleman from Kansas, who have come to Oregon in search of farms and homes. They design to go up as far as Albany. The Messrs Chalmers, if they obtain farms to suit them, will buy and upon returning here, will bring some fine blooded stock from the old country.

BIRDSEYE VIEW OF PORTLAND.—We are indebted to Messrs. Walling & Castleman for a lithographed birdseye view of our city, taken from a point over the ferry landing at East Portland. Messrs W & C have a few copies for sale.

BLACK REPUBLICAN CHERRY.—Mr H [illegible] of this county left in our office a sample of the Black Republican cherry, a seedling from the production of Oregon and a cross between the Royal Ann and Black Bigarreau varieties. This valuable cherry ripens late, when fully ripe is almost black, flesh very firm, crisp and juicy, with a delicious flavor. It is doubtless one of the most valuable late cherries known. The fact of its firmness that it will bear shipping almost any distance. Samples were sent to New York last year by steamer and reached there in good condition. The tree is a great bearer and the fruit large, sometimes measuring an inch in diameter.

THE STEAM TUG ASTORIA.—This vessel which has been lying here for the past week three days was yesterday formally accepted by the commissioners appointed by the State under the law granting a subsidy for a steam tug at the mouth of the Columbia and her owners formally accepted the subsidy with all the conditions annexed. The commissioners are Messrs W Weatherford, H C Leonard and J [illegible] Stephen. The Astoria has also been inspected by both the boiler and hull inspectors and duly licensed as a pilot and tug boat. She will sail for the bar at 5 o'clock this morning.

U S DISTRICT COURT—DEADY, JUDGE.—Friday, July 15. U S vs Jacob Kamm, indictment for smuggling. The following named persons were sworn as a jury: D Beach, S Coffino, James A Foster, Alfred Hovenden, A I Yeaton, Squire Farrar, G M Raymond, D H Crawford, W W Brown, Jacob Cotsor, James E Smith and George L Hibbard. Testimony closed.

JUSTICES COURT.—Before A M Snyder, Justice.—State of Oregon vs John C Dooher, threatening to kill one Stanley; examination concluded, defendant discharged, the court finding that a threat to kill had been uttered but with no demonstration of intent to carry it into effect. Bull for prosecution and C A Dolph for defense.

TWO CASES OF BURGLARY.—Thursday night the Rainbow Saloon, corner of Taylor and Third streets, was entered and robbed of $50, which the burglars found in the till. The night before Ed Chambreau's store on First street was entered by burglars who carried off some silver plate and other valuables.

CIRCUIT COURT—UPTON J, JUDGE.—Friday July 15th. Jacob Kamm vs J B Harker, plaintiff non suited and jury discharged.

Trial jurors all discharged for the term.

Hilfelt Wet & Co vs H H Snow and D M Jesse, cause removed to the U S Circuit Court.

TO BE FINISHED.—Workmen are now engaged in erecting the tower on the northwest corner of the Taylor street M E Church. The Advocate says the brick work will be run up about ten feet further and then the spire extending in all to a height of 100 feet from the ground.

CONCERT AND PICNIC.—The Twenty third Infantry Band will give a concert and picnic at East Portland Park to-morrow afternoon.

FOR SAN FRANCISCO.—The bark Webfoot is up for San Francisco and will commence receiving cargo early next week.

PERSONAL NOTES

Grant, Sherman and Sheridan have been made members of the Bunker Hill Monument Association.

Red Cloud's wife is as straight as an arrow. Her name is The Woman Without a Bow, or as we say in English, The Woman Without a Grecian Bend.

George Francis Train is to sail from San Francisco August 1st in the Great Republic for China on a ninety days holiday trip around the world with his boys.

By a curious coincidence five names on one page (four consecutively) in the Norwich Conn., city directory for 1870 read Slack Thomas, Slow George, Sly John, Small Nathan, and Smart Mary.

Theodore Tilton is the best paid journalist in New York or in America. He receives $8 000 from the Brooklyn Union in addition to his $7 500 from the Independent, making $15 500, and he does not work very hard either.

The largest refracting telescope ever constructed has, it is asserted, just been finished by a firm of astronomical instrument makers in New York. The telescope is 32 feet long, 10 feet 6 inches in circumference, with an object glass 25 inches in diameter. It is to be set up in an observatory on the Island of Madeira.

A visitor at Mr Dickens' house writes to a Boston friend that Mr Dickens after he received the fatal paralytic stroke never regained consciousness, but "for twenty four hours he breathed heavier and heavier, louder and louder, until a quarter of an hour before he expired he began to sob. At last the tears rolled down his furrowed cheek, and with one last sob his spirit departed."

Out of a literary set very few know the author of "Ouida" and "Puck." These highly colored works of imagination are by a woman—a Miss La Ramee—a lady whose father was a French officer. She lives with her mother at one of the large hotels in London and frequently gives parties there. She is neither young nor is she favored by nature with the physical advantages which she lavishes on her heroines.

The Louisville Courier has this singular personal: A little boy six years old, writing from Washington to his grandfather in this city, says:

"Ma took me to the President's to see Spotted Tail. I don't like Spotted Tail. He is a nasty dirty man. In the middle of the levee when Gen Grant was talking to him and all the ladies were looking at him he unbuttoned his pantaloons and fanned his stomach with his shirt. That was certainly indelicate in Spotted Tail."

BRIGHAM YOUNG'S HAREM.—We have for some time given gossipy extracts from the letters of visitors to Mormondom in relation to Brigham Young's domestic affairs, but the following from a communication in the Cincinnati Gazette contains some details we do not remember to have previously seen:

The rooms of the women are very much alike and furnished nearly alike. They are plain but comfortable. [illegible] Each lady has her own key, and when she goes out she locks her door. There is little visiting back and forth, and the ladies live very much as guests do at a first class hotel. Every morning at [illegible] the ringing of the bell the inmates of the harem meet in the great parlor to attend prayers. They sing a hymn and Young prays fervently. The prophet used to [illegible] with his wives, but he [illegible] now [illegible] on rising, each woman [illegible] her room [illegible] she has children [illegible] for breakfast.

After prayers they all go [illegible] ladies with children [illegible] tables, and those without children at the common table. The same food is given to all, and the bill of fare is by no means [illegible] Brigham from time to time details one of his wives to take charge of the cooking, and they remain in [illegible] till relieved. During the day the women walk [illegible] sing, play the piano in the parlor [illegible] children. [illegible] They are very [illegible] In the [illegible] theater, where every [illegible] of Brigham's wives has a reserved seat. [illegible] Young liberally supplies his wives with money, and on his days they [illegible] shopping. He employs a music teacher [illegible] and dancing master for the use of his household. Brigham's women are well treated, but still they have to work hard and he keeps up a wholesome discipline over them.

Multnomah Lodge No 1, I O G T.—Holds Regular Meetings at 7½ o'clock on Saturday evenings of each week. All members in good standing are invited to attend. By order of W C T

It is supposed by some of our Atlantic cotemporaries that certain light [illegible] which have been [illegible] [illegible] may probably disappear [illegible] for many days [illegible] fatally [illegible] [illegible]

A correspondent writing from R[illegible] says that the rumor [illegible] is false [illegible] few days since [illegible] gloomy account of the crop prospects in [illegible] [illegible] excellent and declares that the statement was made for speculative purposes.

The Life Sustaining Organs

The two organs which minister most directly to the support of the body are the stomach and liver. In the former the first processes of digestion take place under the action of that powerful solvent, the gastric juice. Thence the food converted into a pulp passes into the duodenum, where it is subjected to the action of the bile or gall flowing from the liver, and of the fluid generated by the pancreas or sweetbread of the system. These secretions separate the nutritious portion from the rest, and it is then taken up by the absorbent vessels and conveyed into the channels of circulation in the form of venous blood, while the waste matter is discharged through the bowels. Unless all the processes are duly performed, disease of some sort is inevitable, and the best of all medicinal agents for preserving or restoring the tone and regulating the action of three organs—(the stomach, liver and intestines)—by which the three-fold work is carried on, is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Indigestion is generally accompanied by constipation, and the gentle cathartic operation of the Bitters is no less important in cases of this kind than its tonic effect upon the stomach and the biliary gland. Beauty of person as well as health depends in no small degree upon the regularity of the excretive functions. A sallow complexion, a thick opaque coarse skin, a tainted breath, rush of blood to the head, loss of memory, headache, and extreme mental depression are the usual accompaniments of costiveness. A course of the Bitters will infallibly relieve and finally banish these obnoxious symptoms, while invigorating the stomach and promoting healthy action in the liver. This genial vegetable stomachic and alterative attacks disease in its primary sources, the assimilating, secretive and expulsive organs, and the cures it effects are consequently thorough and complete.

Fast Living and its Consequences.—When fast life has undermined the strength, destroyed the appetite, impaired the digestion and stolen the hue of health from the cheek—when the hand trembles, the spirits droop, and the whole physical and mental organization languishes, is it possible to repair the evil and restore the dilapidated system to full health and vigor? We answer that it is. Hundreds of cases have been cited, thousands might be cited, in which this regeneration has been accomplished by the regular and persistent use of PLANTATION BITTERS. Abstinence from the indulgences which have wrought the mischief is of course one of the means of restoration. But it is not sufficient alone. The consequences remain after the cause has been abandoned. A wholesome and genial tonic is absolutely necessary to rouse the corporeal and mental energies from their state of collapse. This good work it is the mission of the PLANTATION BITTERS to perform. But no other stimulant must be taken.

Manufactory Established in June, 1851.

STEAM POWER NOS 625 AND 627 FRONT ST.

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities, CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts. The undersigned who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here and in the markets of the interior a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after all, but only adds to the fame of the proprietor, [illegible] there [illegible] flattering [illegible] [illegible] buy of the counterfeiters. NEW DAILY AND WEEKLY.

THE UNDERSIGNED WILL COMMENCE THE publication in this city of

THE DAILY OREGON BULLETIN

ON

Monday, July 18th,

And will issue on each day of the week (Monday excepted) a Morning and an Evening Edition.

The BULLETIN will be an Independent Newspaper, devoted to the best and most material interests of the City of Portland, and of the whole State of Oregon,—to the growth, the development, and the promotion of the bright future and the grand destiny of both.

The DAILY BULLETIN will be the largest daily newspaper ever published in Oregon. It will contain thirty two columns, and these shall be filled with all which constitutes the most attractive features in a thorough news journal, to meet the requirements of the Merchant, the Farmer, the Mechanic and of every class of readers. Especial attention will be devoted to the immigration system, from which Oregon will certainly derive vast advantages in the immediate as well as in the remote future.

The publication of

THE WEEKLY OREGON BULLETIN

Will be commenced on SATURDAY, JULY 23D.

The WEEKLY BULLETIN will be the largest weekly newspaper ever published in Oregon and will contain forty columns of printed matter. In it will be given everything which shall have appeared in the Daily edition for the days immediately preceding its issue.

Constitution and By Laws of the Portland Board of Trade

[illegible]

Constitution.

ARTICLE I.—OF MEETINGS

Meetings of the Board of Trade shall be held on the second Tuesday following the first Monday of each month. The place of meeting shall be designated by the President unless previously provided for by the Board. The regular meeting in May of each year shall be the annual meeting. Special meetings may be held at any time on the call of the President. It shall be the duty of the President to call a meeting whenever he may be requested in writing to do so by five members.

No business shall be transacted at a special meeting other than that for which the meeting may have been called. In the absence of the President and Vice President any three members may call a meeting, and in the absence from any meeting of all these officers a President pro tem shall be elected. Seven members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, but a smaller number may adjourn.

ARTICLE II.—OF OFFICERS

The officers of the Board of Trade shall consist of a President, First and Second Vice Presidents, Treasurer, Secretary and Librarian, who shall be elected by ballot at the annual meeting, and hold their offices for one year and until others shall be elected to fill their places. One person may hold the office of Treasurer, Secretary and Librarian. The President and Vice Presidents shall be ex officio Trustees.

ARTICLE III.—OF THE DUTY OF THE PRESIDENT

It shall be the duty of the President to preside at all meetings of the Board of Trade, to direct that the minutes of the last meeting and all reports of committees be read; to call special meetings whenever occasion may arise therefor, and to approve all accounts previous to their payment by the Treasurer. In addition to his vote as a member he shall have the casting vote.

ARTICLE IV.—OF THE DUTY OF THE VICE PRESIDENTS

The Vice Presidents, in the order of seniority, shall, in the absence of the President, discharge his duties.

ARTICLE V.—OF THE DUTIES OF THE TREASURER

The Treasurer shall receive all dues and arbitration fees, and take charge of all funds of the Board of Trade, and pay out the same as directed by its orders with the sanction of its President; keep fair and regular accounts, subject at all times to investigation by the President and Vice Presidents, and by any committee appointed by the Board; report at each monthly meeting the state of the treasury; call upon members for their dues, who shall have allowed them to remain unpaid for three months, and in case of their refusal or neglect to pay the same, report their names at the next succeeding meeting; and render an account at each annual meeting of the receipts and disbursements of the preceding year. His compensation, inclusive of his services as Secretary and Librarian, in case of his filling those offices, shall be twenty dollars per month.

ARTICLE VI.—OF THE DUTY OF THE SECRETARY

The Secretary shall keep a fair record of all the proceedings of the Board, present at its meetings any communications which may be made to him in his official capacity, give proper notice of all meetings of the Board, and report at the annual meeting the existing number of members, together with the deaths, resignations, forfeitures, and expulsions during the preceding year. He shall also perform such other duties as may be incumbent upon the office.

ARTICLE VII.—OF THE DUTY OF THE LIBRARIAN

The Librarian shall form and keep a catalogue of all the books, maps and charts which may belong to the Board, and attend to their preservation. He shall allow of their proper use by the members of the Board, but, on no account, allow of their removal from the rooms in which the library may be placed. He shall make reports from time to time of all additions to the library, and at the annual meeting a report in regard to its condition.

ARTICLE VIII.—OF THE SEAL

The seal of the Board shall be circular, with the words "PORTLAND BOARD OF TRADE, OREGON," around the border, with such device in the center as may be preferred.

ARTICLE IX.—OF VACANCIES

The vacancies which may occur in the offices, or in the Committee of Appeals, shall be filled at the next regular meeting after the one at which the vacancy shall be made known by election by ballot. Whenever a temporary vacancy shall occur, by absence from the State, it shall be filled pro tem by an election at the meeting at which such absence shall be made known.

ARTICLE X.—OF ADMISSION OF MEMBERS.

Any merchant, merchandise broker, manufacturer, banker, capitalist or insurance agent, resident in the States of Oregon, California or Nevada, or in Washington Territory, may become a member of this Board, on a proposal, signed by a member of this Board, [illegible] to the Committee on Membership, who shall report thereon to the Board at the next regular meeting thereof, when a ballot shall take place, and the candidate shall be declared to be admitted unless three negatives shall appear against him, in which case he cannot be again proposed during the ensuing six months. Any other person may be elected a member of the Board, upon the unanimous recommendation of the Committee on Membership, and the unanimous vote of the Board.

Honorary memberships may be conferred on distinguished visitors or others with all the privileges of the Board, but without the duties of regular members, for which certificates with the seal of the Board may be granted.

ARTICLE XI.—OF THE DUTIES OF MEMBERS

Every member of this Board shall pay to the Treasurer for its use the sum of three ($3 00) dollars quarterly in advance. Any member who may neglect for the space of three quarters to pay the above amount, provided that he shall have been called upon by the Treasurer, shall be considered to have forfeited his membership, and his name shall be stricken from the roll.

No dues shall accrue during the absence of members from the State, provided however that fractions of quarters shall not be reckoned in such absence.

ARTICLE XII.—OF RESIGNATIONS

Any member desirous of resigning his membership shall address a letter of resignation to the Secretary, to be communicated to the Board, which resignation shall be accepted, provided, that all arrearages shall have been paid; but in case of resignation the monthly dues shall be continued until all arrearages shall have been fully paid.

ARTICLE XIII.—OF EXPULSIONS

Any motion for the expulsion of a member shall be made at a regular meeting, and lie over until the next regular meeting, at which time the question shall be put, and if a majority of the members present shall vote for such expulsion, the individual named in the motion shall be expelled.

ARTICLE XIV.—ON COMMITTEE OF ARBITRATION

A committee of five shall be elected by ballot to serve one year, three of whom shall be a quorum for the purpose of deciding upon all disputed accounts, or other matters submitted to their arbitration.

The contending parties shall first enter into bonds, for an amount proportioned to the sum to be arbitrated upon, to abide by the decision of the committee, or in case of appeal of that of the Committee of Appeals. The parties in dispute if unwilling to refer their case to the committee, may choose three or five members willing to serve from the whole list of members of the Board (excepting those constituting the Committee of Appeals), and in all cases in which the committee are not unanimous in their decision, either party may appeal to the Committee of Appeals for a revision of the case, provided that such appeal shall be made by written notice to the Secretary within five days after the decision shall be made known. No members of this Board shall be competent to serve as a referee in any case out of the Board.

ARTICLE XV.—OF THE COMMITTEE OF APPEALS.

There shall be elected by ballot, at each annual meeting of the Board, five members, who, with the President, or one of the Vice Presidents serving as Chairman, but having none other than a casting vote, shall constitute a Committee of Appeals, three of which shall be a quorum to decide upon all cases of appeal from the action of the Arbitration Committee. Where a majority of the sitting members shall agree to an award their decision shall be final; provided that should the committee consist of but three they must be unanimous, or if not two other members of the committee shall be called in, the matter again heard and a final decision made.

ARTICLE XVI.—OF FEES OF ARBITRATION

Members shall not [illegible] for the payment of any fees of arbitration, excepting that the Secretary shall be entitled to five dollars for his services in notifying the committee, and a further sum of five dollars for a copy of the award he may be called upon to furnish. The fees in cases where neither party is a member, shall be (in addition to the Secretary's fees aforesaid) one per cent on the amount of the award, provided, however, that the fees in no case shall amount to more than one hundred dollars, nor less than five dollars. In cases of appeal the additional fees to be paid shall be one half the above named. All fees of arbitration shall be paid to the Treasurer for the use of the Board.

A succinct statement of the parties in dispute, together with a report of the award, shall be made by the Secretary of the Board at the next regular meeting after the same shall have been decided.

ARTICLE XVII.—OF COMMITTEES TO BE ELECTED AT THE ANNUAL MEETING

1st. A Committee of three on Finance, whose duty it shall be to supervise the accounts of the Treasurer, to examine all bills before paid, (and none shall be without their approval) to recommend assessments when they shall deem them necessary and to [illegible] to the statement of the Treasurer to the annual meeting of the Board.

2d. A Committee of three On Library. This committee shall have general supervision of the Library, and shall also have the general charge of the rooms and furniture.

3d. A Committee of three on Membership, whose duty it shall be to receive all applications for membership and report thereon to the Board.

4th. A Committee of five on "Arbitration," to whom may be referred all cases of mercantile dispute arising between members of the Board or between parties not members which may be submitted to the Board for settlement. This committee shall meet at the call of its chairman. All parties claiming their services shall make statements of their points in writing, and shall have the right of producing witnesses under the regulations and direction of the Committee.

5th. A Committee of five on "Appeals," to whom appeal may be made from the decisions of the Committee on Arbitration under such regulations as the Board may at any time adopt, but, no decision of the Committee on Arbitration shall be appealed from unless the appeal be made in writing within five days after the delivery to the parties interested, of the decision of the Committee on Arbitration.

A majority of each Committee shall be a quorum thereof. Vacancies in any committee shall be filled at the next regular meeting of the Board.

ARTICLE XVIII.—AMENDMENTS

Any motion for adding to the Constitution and By-Laws or for repealing or for amending the same, shall be made at a regular meeting, and if at a succeeding regular meeting, such addition, repeal or amendment shall be approved by two-thirds of the members present it shall take effect.

By-Laws.

I. The stated meetings of the Board shall be held in the evening at an hour to be named by the President.

II. The order of business at the stated meetings shall be as follows:

1st. Reading of the minutes of the last meeting.
2d. Presentations of communications.
3d. Elections to fill vacancies.
4th. Nomination of candidates for membership.
5th. Ballot for candidates for membership.
6th. Report of Treasurer, Secretary and Librarian.
7th. Reports of Committees.
8th. Unfinished business.
9th. Miscellaneous business.

At the stated meeting in May, immediately after the reading of the minutes, a committee of three shall be appointed by the chair to audit the accounts of the Treasurer before their presentation at the annual meeting.

At the annual meeting the first business in order after reading the minutes, shall be the reports of the Treasurer, Secretary and Librarian, after which the election of officers shall take place.

III. Members of the Committee of Arbitration who shall be absent from the meetings of the same shall forfeit and pay to the use of this Board ten dollars for each default, unless a satisfactory excuse can be made to the Board.

IV. At a meeting of the Board, the Secretary shall enter the names of the members present on the minutes.

V. A quorum being present the President shall take the chair, and on a call to order the members shall take their seats and proceed to business.

VI. Every member who speaks shall rise and address the chair. No person shall speak twice on the same subject unless by permission, or by way of explanation. Members deviating from the subject shall be immediately called to order.

VII. All motions shall be made in writing if required by any member, and no debate shall be permitted except on a motion regularly made, seconded, and stated from the chair. A member, however, shall not be prevented from prefacing any proposition he may be about to make.

VIII. Every motion made in writing shall be read by the mover in his place previous to offering it to the chair.

IX. The President shall be the judge of all questions of order, and may call the transgressing members to order as often as they shall infringe the rules of the Board, but any member so called to order may explain himself and may appeal to the Board; if seconded in such appeal the members present shall decide.

X. No business before the Board shall be interrupted except by a motion for the previous question, postponement, or adjournment, and such motions shall preclude amendment, or decision of the original subject until such motion shall be disposed of; but the previous question shall not be moved by less than four members.

XI. A member may call for the division of a question when the same will admit of it.

XII. None of the foregoing By Laws shall be rescinded, or altered, nor any new one made unless after regular notice given at a previous stated meeting of such proposed abrogation, alteration, amendment or addition.

XIII. Cushing's Manual shall be the recognized authority on all parliamentary questions that may arise.

CONSUMPTION OF BEER IN EUROPE.—It is estimated that the quantity of beer consumed in Europe each year would require to contain it a canal nearly five English miles in length, 100 feet deep and 200 feet broad. The relative consumption of beer and wine in some of the principal countries is as follows:

	Wine gallons	Beer gallons
North Germany	[illegible]	[illegible]
South Germany	[illegible]	[illegible]
German Austria	[illegible]	[illegible]
Total in Germany	121,500,000	448,000,000
Great Britain and Ireland	[illegible]	[illegible]
France	[illegible]	[illegible]

On the Bavarian border is a little village, Heiligen Ebesdorff—of 1,000 inhabitants. In this village the yearly consumption of beer amounts to 530,804 quarts, or nearly two quarts per day to each inhabitant.

Heiligen Ebesdorff supports 3 inns and 12 beer saloons, or 1 to every 66 of the population. It is the champion beer drinking town of the world. Their beer costs its inhabitants 18 thalers each per year.

Some of the German names for beer are, for its distinctions and varieties are amusing: Village devil, belly ache, shaky head, shaky cap, mule death-blow, death-head, peace and unity, cool blonde, clack, go down, chuckoo and buffalo are among the appellations.—American Eclectic Medical Review.

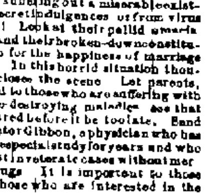
NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,



623 KEARNEY STREET NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies. See that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequently insanity. If relief be not obtained should apply immediately either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and sol[illegible] mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of his complaint by either [illegible] the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay obtaining immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders, who with bogus sworn certificates dupe the unwary. Some of the self styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen and bedamns too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory and you will not find their Medical Institutes [illegible] at the Directory for 1862 and 1863 [illegible] may save you many regrets [illegible] safety in [illegible] and what they are. Dr. Gibbon [illegible] certificates, pretended patients' letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 623 Kearney street, corner Commercial (Private Entrance on Commercial), San Francisco. Post Office Box 462.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 462 ON THE LETTER.

Consultation FREE.
